

INVITATION TO THE VACANCY MEETING

ON 27TH MARCH 2025 AT 7.30PM

IN THE WILKINSON HALL

FOLLOWING THE RETIREMENT OF REV LINDA WASHINGTON

Vacancy meetings are usually led by Bishop Richard and Archdeacon Dave Middleton. We hope Rev Noel McGeeney - the Rural Dean, Kerry Smith - Lay Chair of the Deanery, and David Roberts - Patron's representative, will also be able to attend.

The Archdeacon will explain the vacancy process and Bishop Richard will lead discussion about joys and opportunities in our parishes as well as the challenges and aspirations.

They will welcome open discussion to give everyone a chance to express their thoughts and ideas, and there will be opportunity to ask questions. Indeed, broad input is important and useful in developing the "Parish Profile" which is part of the process.

Please come to participate in this process, which is important, not just to the local churches, but to the local communities as a whole.

The meeting is open to all.
